House Gatherings

What we're doing:

- Promoting the use of small groups to explore their faith through a wide range of discussion topics.
- Inviting all members to share both their understanding and their questions about the "Way" that we call Christian Faith.
- Last Fall we introduced House Gatherings as a way to get to know each other better as brothers and sisters while praying, discussing and growing in faith. Four groups met on a weekly or monthly basis. Some continue to share the fellowship that was started then. Topics from last fall can be seen on the Spotlight bulletin board outside the Fellowship Hall.

What we're asking you to do:

- Prayerfully consider participating in the many "offerings" presented by this ministry. Options for topics will be offered at the end of August.
- Offer to facilitate a House Gathering with your idea for a topic to be covered. Contact Don Seeber (540-2974) or Vicki Carlson (457-5604) to help with your plan.
- Offer your home to facilitate a House Gathering of 6-10 people.
- Join community in drinking deeply from the Spirit of God.
